

Change of Bank Details Form

Dear Member,

- You Recently requested that we transfer funds from your Credit Union account to an alternative bank account from what we currently hold for you.
- You wish to add an additional bank account to your Credit Union account.

In the interests of good governance and propriety and to protect you we would ask that you first complete the details below which we will then take as your instruction to add a new bank account to the details we already hold for you. No money will be transferred to this new/additional account until we are in receipt of this completed form.

Please complete with your bank details below and return to our office BY POST or IN PERSON only, not email, as soon as convenient.
