How to Join (Junior Accounts) Harp & Crown Credit Union Ltd.

We are a non-profit making, financial co-operative, owned and run by people who have a Common Bond.

Our Common Bond

Serving PSNI officer, employee, staff or retired member (or have left service/employment and in receipt of a police pension), Harbour Police, Airport Police; National Crime Agency; and other UK/Irish Police Services where an applicant is now resident in Northern Ireland; NI Police Fund staff; PRRT staff; staff/members of Newforge Sports Complex; along with spouse/partner of or child/grandchild* of member. *Ts/Cs apply.

Junior Accounts

A qualifying adult member may open a savings account for his or her child, from birth to age 15 years. At age 16 years, accounts will transfer to full member status (voting rights and ability to borrow takes effect when the member attains the age of 18 years).

Our Junior Accounts provide the opportunity for straightforward secure saving facilities for the Police Family. With a minimum balance of £5.00 required to open an account, and maximum savings £100 per month. New accounts will be restricted to a maximum lump sum lodgement within the first twelve months of £5,000.00.

Deposits will be limited, subject to a monthly limit of £1,000.00 per account.

Overview

- Free gift on joining
- No joining fees
- No minimum age
- No bank charges
- No required monthly deduction, although regular savings can be set up via salary deduction or Direct Debit
- The qualifying member will be the Trustee and signatory of the account

To open an account for your child, please complete the attached Application Form and return to the Credit Union Office, with a copy of your child's Birth Certificate.

Please note that the Junior Account is run in addition to your Regular Account. If you are not already a member, please join before proceeding with this application.
